News from the National Association of Manufacturers of technologies for manufacturing industry

THANK YOU!

A huge “Thank you!” from ASSOMAC and its Associated Companies to all the partners, visitors and friends that have visited our booths during SIMAC TANNING TECH 2020 in Milan.

Receiving you was a great pleasure and we are sure that has been wide opportunity for showing you the most recent innovations and product solutions.

The result of such successfully exhibition, in term of numbers but even in term of qualify interest in our technology proposals, unfortunately was blear due to the globally sanitary situation that influencing the Economy framework worldwide.

ASSOMAC and the member companies would like to thank you for kind messages received and we would like to assure and reconfirm that our production system is still operating and ready to support your assistance and service requests with the usual high quality competences.
